

The Ruby-Throated Hummingbird

This hummingbird is the most common in Eastern North America. It spends most of the winter in Florida, Southern Mexico and Central America. It beats its wings about 53 times a second and has a heart rate up to 1260 beats per minute. Some favorite flowers include native wildflowers such as trumpet honeysuckle and scarlet beebalm.

