

The Lesser Goldfinch

Lesser Goldfinches are small, stub-billed songbirds with long pointed wings and short notched tails. Males are bright yellow and have a glossy black cap and white patches in the wings. Their backs can be a shiny black or they may be a dull green. Females have black wings marked by two whitish wingbars. They feed on seeds and grains and are vegetarians!

