

The Northern Flicker

Northern Flickers are large, brown woodpeckers with beautiful multicolor plumage. They have many colors—black, brown, gray, red, tan, white, and maybe yellow. You will see yellow underneath their tail if you are in the East and red if you are in the West. Flickers mainly eat ants and beetles so you may even see one on the ground!

